

Books are really important for us so we need to read them.

Not only that we read them, but we also learn something from them.

Some of them are interesting, some maybe not, but they help us in our imagination.

Nika

